2026 Annual Meeting Activities

CAWV is pleased to offer an exciting lineup of new activities this year. Attendees can look forward to the return of the popular Pickleball Tournament, along with a new croquet experience featuring a hosted beer and wine bar. Saturday's schedule begins with a round of golf on the scenic Meadows Course, followed by a family bowling event sponsored by Daniels Law Firm. In the afternoon, guests will have the opportunity to participate in a unique, hands-on Falconry Experience, featuring personal interactions with falcons, hawks, eagles, and owls.

Pickleball Clinic & Tournament

► Friday, July 10 - 9:30 AM

Pickleball is now one of the hottest up-and-coming sports. The Greenbrier is offering both a clinic and tournament for CAWV members. The clinic covers instruction on strokes, strategy, and scoring from two experienced coordinators. All skill levels are welcome and we encourage beginners to participate because it is easy to pick up and play. This activity will last approximately two hours. There are two players to a team.

“Lawn Legends” Croquet

► Friday, July 10 - 3:00 PM

Join fellow participants on the lawn at The Greenbrier for a fun and engaging game of croquet. An experienced professional will guide you through the rules and strategies, making it enjoyable for both beginners and seasoned players alike. A selection of craft beer, domestic beer, wine, and non-alcoholic beverages will be provided. The event will last approximately 2 hours. There are two players to a team. Limited Slots are available.
